

Please consider that Indiana has an effective telephone privacy law. Please do not pass any legislation that would weaken Indiana law, or dilute the protections provided for the citizens of this state. Since we have been on the no-call list our evenings have been free of the numerous unsolicited calls and offers for products and services we had no interest in.